

Leaving a Lasting Legacy

By remembering Amani in your will through a bequest or legacy, you will be leaving a lasting, powerful impact on lives of street children in Tanzania.

Each year, Amani supporters, like you, help us rescue children and build sustainable futures filled with hope for them, their families and communities. By pledging a gift in your will you can be there for future generations.

What is a legacy?

A legacy is a gift of money, property or a valued possession that you decide to leave to family, friends of charitable causes you hold dear after your death.

How can I leave a legacy to Amani?

If you are writing a new will, you need only give your solicitor the charity's details, including our exact name, address and charity number.

Friends of Amani UK
c/o Martin Crabb
Little Thatch
Etchilhampton
Devizes
Wiltshire
SN10 3JL

Registered Charity Number: 1107618

If you already have a will and would like to add a charitable bequest to it, simply complete a codicil. A solicitor can also help you do this.

Benefits of Leaving a Legacy to Friends of Amani UK

Every gift we receive, big or small, is important and gratefully received. A gift in your will is perhaps the most significant way you can help vulnerable street children. Being a grassroots organisation with minimal overheads ensures your donations maximum impact.

Charitable legacies left by someone who lives in the United Kingdom are except from Inheritance Tax, ensuring every penny of your gift will go into supporting our work.
